Bergstaff Place

Weddings in the restored Falstaff Brewery — twenty-foot arched windows, original brick, and one team for every detail.

WHO WE ARE

One landmark room, one team, every detail

Bergstaff Place sits inside the historic Falstaff Brewery — once home to Fort Wayne's beloved Berghoff Brewery. The building has been restored to show off what made it worth keeping: the original architecture, twenty-foot arched paned windows, high open ceilings and exposed brick walls.

It is run by Ceruti's, the Fort Wayne catering family behind five local venues. That is the part couples feel on the day. Your kitchen, your bar, your banquet staff, your décor and your design consultant are the same people who walked the room with you the first time — not five vendors who have to be introduced to each other.

The patio opens seasonally, the bar is licensed and staffed in-house, and the room is yours for five hours, set up before you arrive and cleaned up after you leave.

WHY BERGSTAFF PLACE

Four reasons couples book this room

Every venue says it is charming. Here is what is actually different, in writing.

01

A room with real history

An open “loft” concept in a restored brewery: exposed brick, high open ceilings and twenty-foot arched paned windows that do most of the decorating for you. Photographs here do not need a filter.

02

Everything under one roof

Culinary team, licensed full-service bar, bartenders, banquet staff, security, décor and design consultation — all in-house. One contract, one point of contact, one team on the day.

03

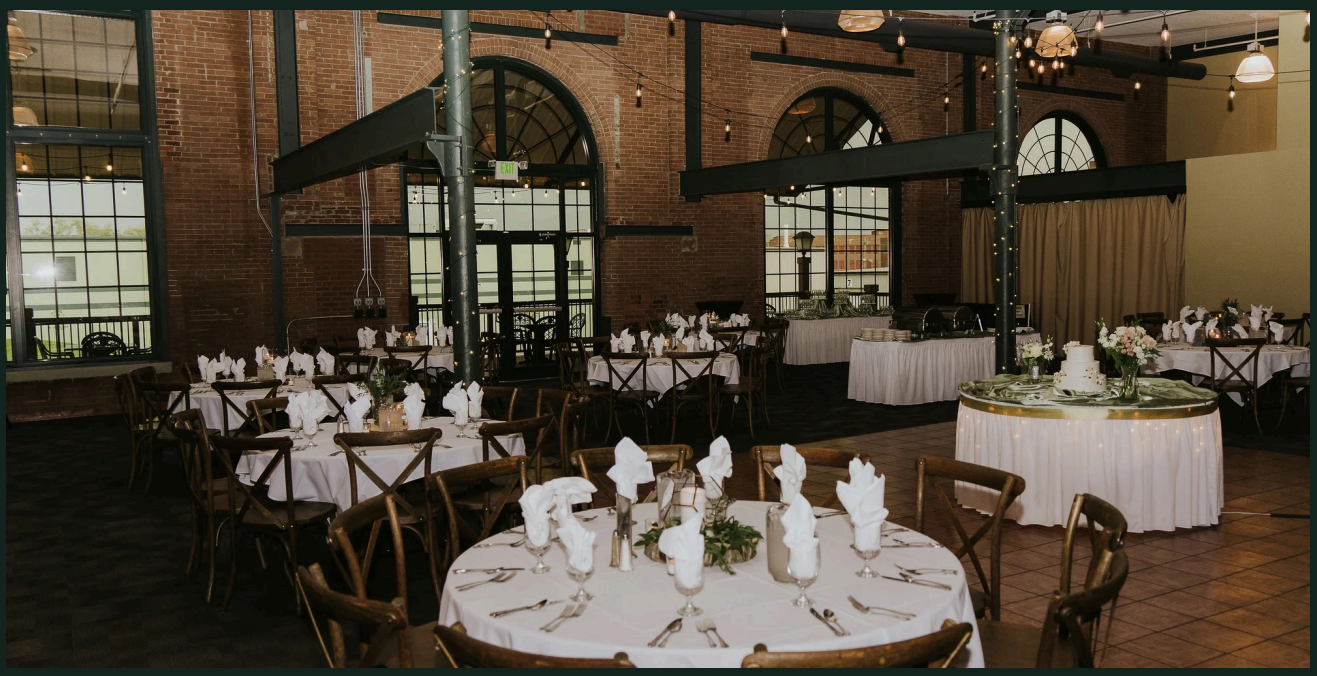

Set up and cleaned up

Room rental covers up to five hours of event time, set-up, clean-up, tables and chairs. Nobody in the wedding party is stacking chairs at midnight.

04

Prices you can actually see

Published room rental rates and per-guest all-inclusive packages, printed on the following pages. A real budget can be built before the first conversation.

CONSULTATION & DESIGN

Start with a conversation, not a contract

Step 01

Tell us your date

We check availability and walk the room with you. Most couples reserve about 12 months out, closer to 18 if the date cannot move. May, June, September and October go first; February is the most negotiable month on the calendar.

Step 02

Design and budget together

Event design and logistics, menu planning, room layout, budget planning and a site inspection — in one sitting, with the people who will actually run the day.

Step 03

Put it in writing

A deposit holds the room and the catering. Prices are locked in by a signed catering contract, so the number agreed to is the number paid.

QUESTIONS COUPLES ASK FIRST

The answers, before you call

How far in advance should we book?

Plan on reserving about 12 months ahead — closer to 18 months if your date cannot move. May, June, September and October fill first. February has the softest demand and the most room to negotiate.

How much does a wedding here cost?

Room rental runs $750 Sunday through Thursday and $1,700 Friday and Saturday. All-inclusive packages are $58.75, $77.75 or $99.75 per guest with a 150-guest minimum. All prices are subject to a 20% administrative fee and applicable taxes.

Is a deposit required?

Yes. A deposit reserves both the room and the catering. Pricing is locked in once a catering contract is signed.

Do you make wedding cakes?

We do not bake cakes, so you are free to use the baker you want. We cut and serve it at no additional charge.

Is there parking?

Free off-street parking, plus a private coatroom and restrooms for your guests.

Do you cater at other locations?

Yes, provided the site does not hold an exclusive catering contract. We limit the number of weddings per day so that every one of them gets the same kitchen.

How many guests does Bergstaff Place hold?

The banquet space is 4,000 square feet and accommodates 25 to 250 guests for weddings in an open “loft” layout.

What does the room rental include?

Up to five hours of event time, room set-up and clean-up, and your tables and chairs. Food, beverage and décor are quoted separately or bundled into a package.

Do you provide the bar?

Yes. Ceruti’s is state-licensed to serve beer, wine and mixed drinks, and our own bartenders work the event. Packages range from unlimited draft beer and house wine up to unlimited call brand liquor.

Can we decorate through you?

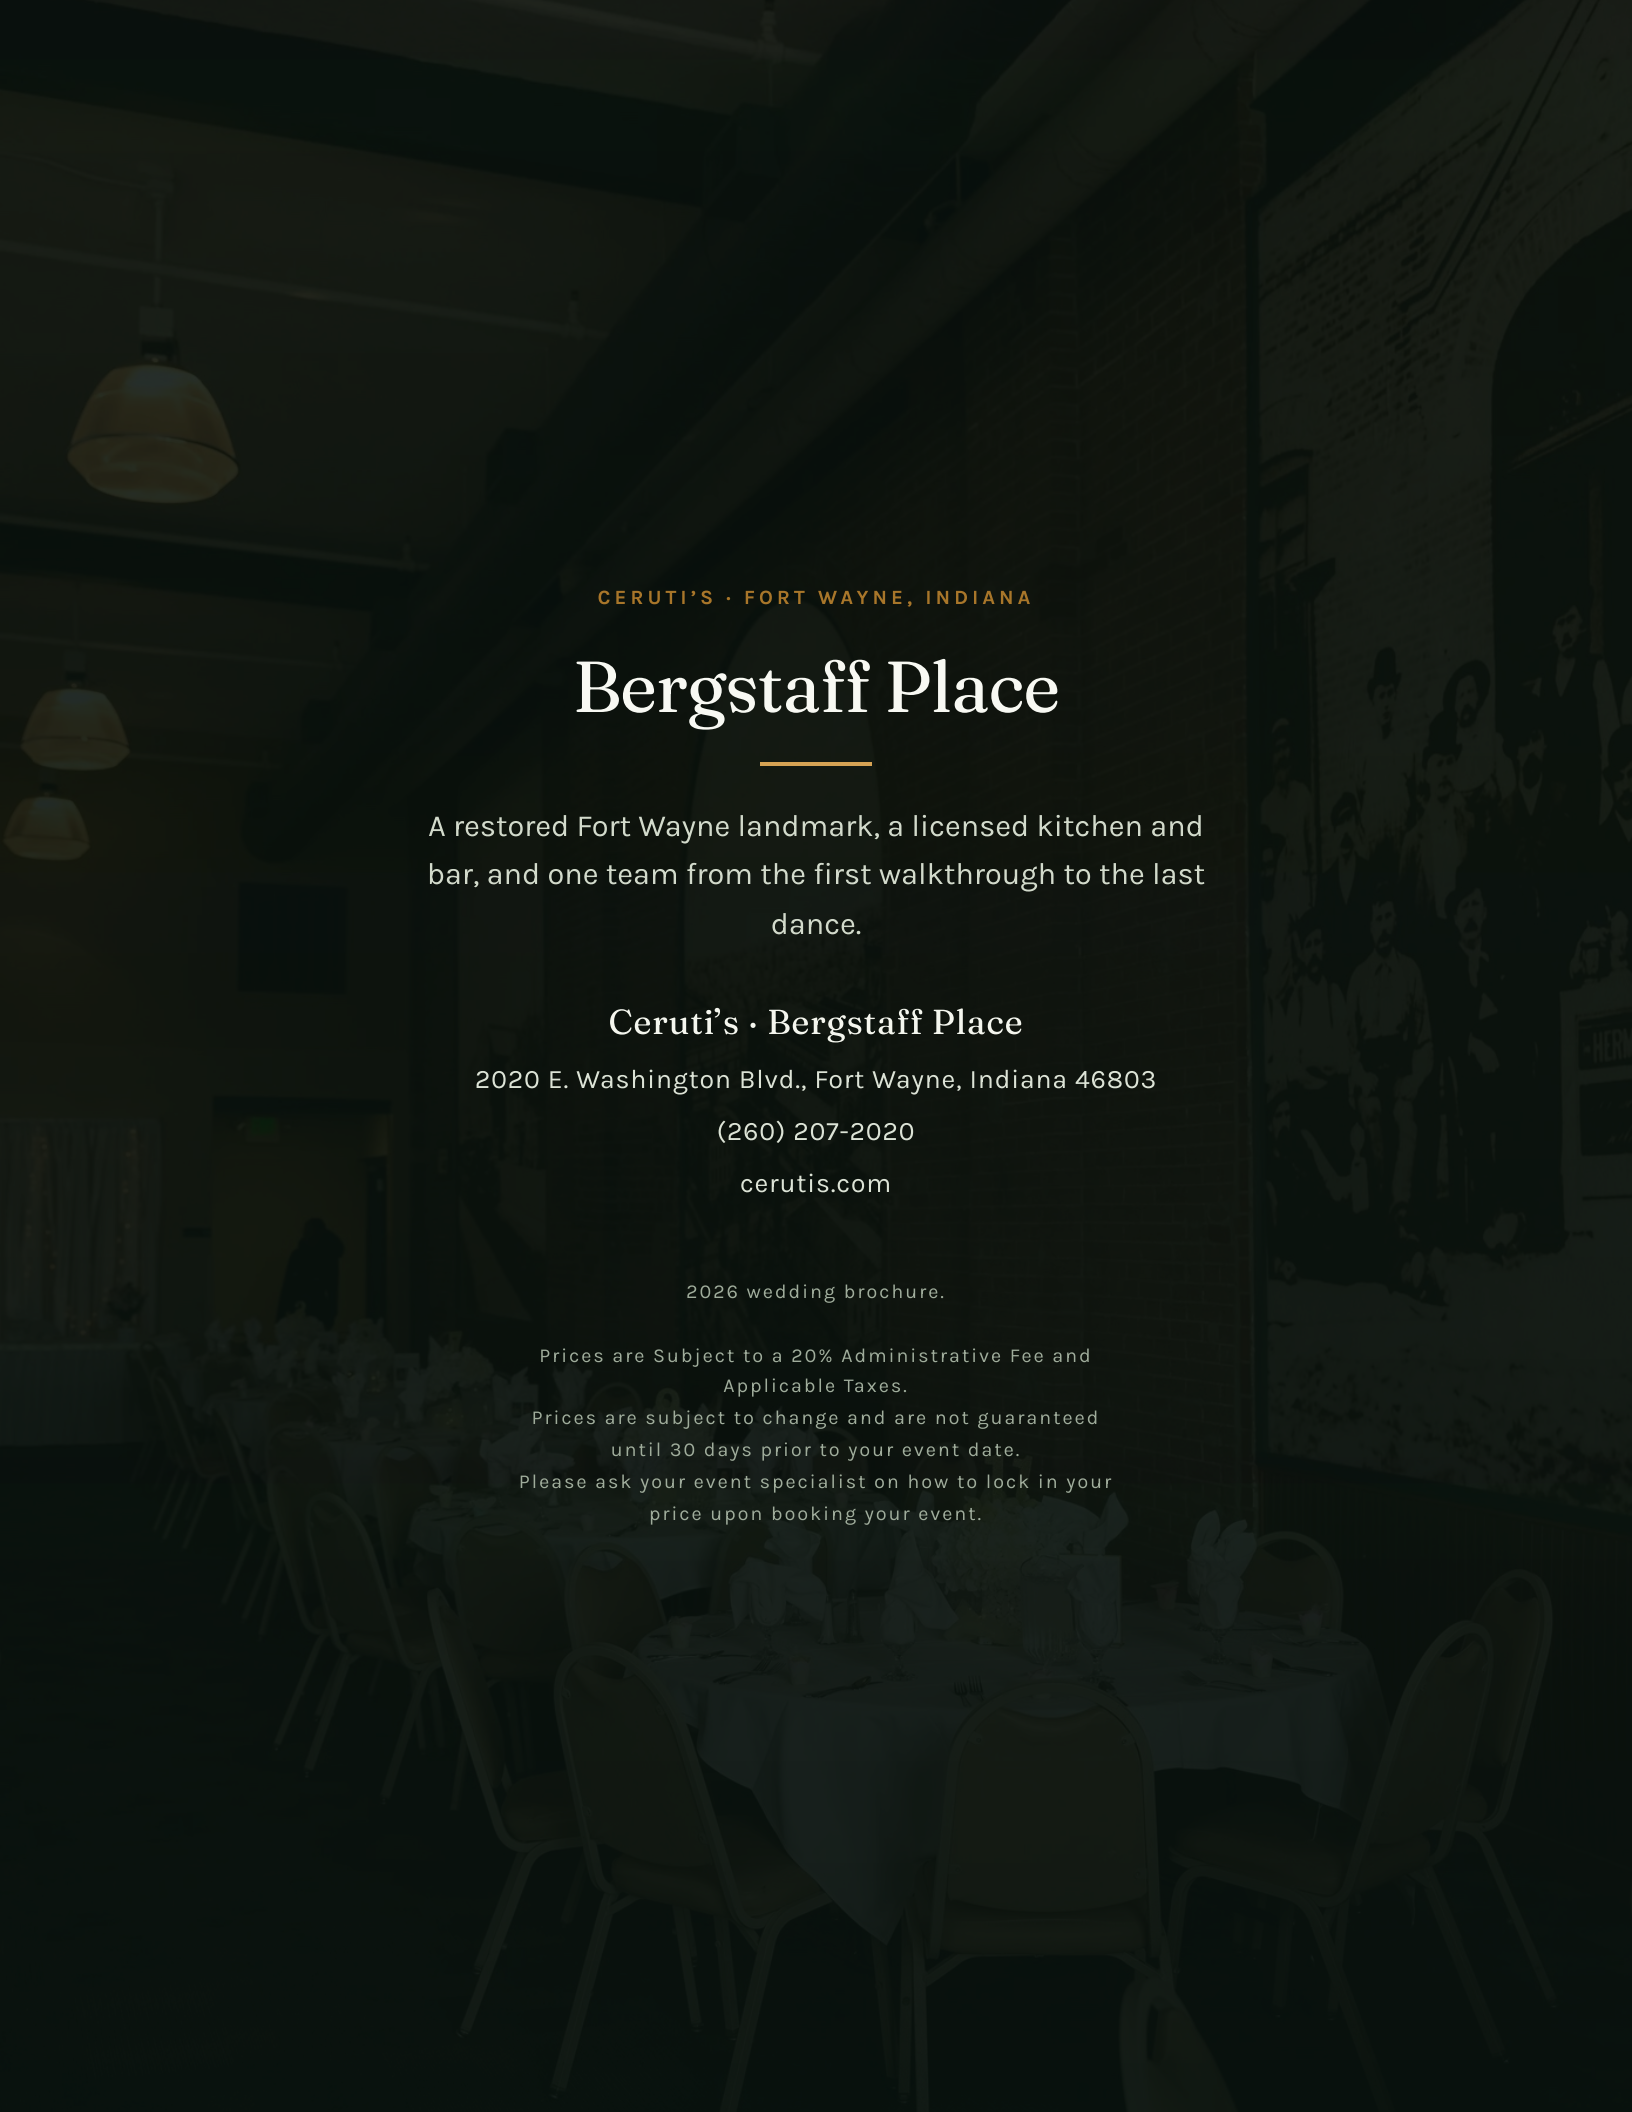

Yes. Full-service wedding decorating is available — centerpieces, bouquets and ceremony décor — either as one of the three packages or designed from scratch with our consultant.

Can we hold our ceremony at Bergstaff Place?

Yes. The Ceremony Package is $800 and includes a two-hour rehearsal, a three-hour wedding-day window, a backdrop or wedding arch, and 100 white chairs. Ceremonies are not held outdoors.

Are there quieter dates?

February is the softest month on the calendar. Fridays and Sundays have the most availability, though there is less flexibility on food cost than on the room.
